

PRESS INFORMATION

The Rat Pack Productions Ltd presents

Nathan Cassidy: the frog that says sausages

Nathan prepares for his Royal Variety Performance, where he will bin anything offensive and instead do jokes that everyone in the world adores. WARNING: Contains the most offensive joke ever. Debut solo Edinburgh show from the edgy, warm and unique stand-up.

www.nathancassidy.com

'An incredible act - gloriously entertaining' Chortle.co.uk

Next performances

Brighton Festival Fringe (Edinburgh preview)

The Caroline of Brunswick - Sat May 8th at 8.00pm £5 (£4)

Hen & Chickens Theatre, London (Edinburgh preview)

Sat July 17th at 9.30pm £6 (£5)

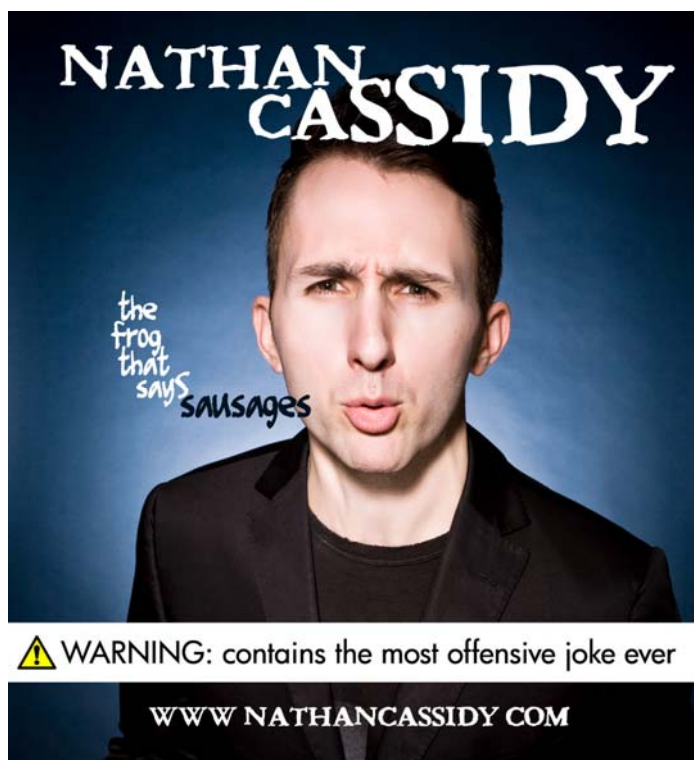

Etcetera Theatre, London (Edinburgh preview)

Friday July 30th at 9.30pm £6 (£5)

Edinburgh Comedy Festival

Just The Tonic @ The Caves (Just out of the Box) - Aug 5th-29th at 5.20pm

www.nathancassidy.com/frog for images, clips and more.

high res images at: www.nathancassidy.com/frog

Stars Nathan Cassidy.

Nathan has performed stand-up all over the country including London's Comedy Store, The Komedia (Brighton) and the Buzz (Manchester), and is currently gigging in the major London venues and around the UK.

The show 'the frog that says sausages' recently sold out its first preview at the Leicester Comedy Festival (Feb 2010).

Nathan is also an award winning writer and writes for radio, screen and theatre - the play based on his first novel 'The Cure for the Common Cold' won the Sir Michael Caine award for new writing in 2007.

For further information please contact Ellen mail@theratpack.co.uk
For more information and photos please go to www.nathancassidy.com/frog

-ends-