

PRESS RELEASE – THE RAT PACK PRODUCTIONS LTD

Nathan Cassidy: Watch This. Love me. It's deep.

Sir Michael Caine Award winning writer and comedian's new one-man theatre show. A perfect love story in a swimming pool. It's deep.

'A human adventure that is drenched in hilarity. Brilliantly funny and insightful, creative and like someone has filled a tasty donut story with comedy jam.'

★★★★★ The Audience Club March 2017

This one-man theatre show combines Nathan Cassidy's award winning comedy with a real life perfect love story. At 15 years old, Nathan met the love of his life in a swimming pool, and it became a perfect love. This is their story. Some believe that a perfect love could never exist for them. But can you imagine your perfect love, can you imagine the person you could meet and fall in love with who would be perfect for you? Because if you can imagine it then it's possible.

The love of Nathan's life is Heather, a girl obsessed with swimming, Tarot and the 80s film 'Big'. Nathan chose the Moon Tarot card with Heather - the unknown mystery of our imaginations. Our imaginations can be just as real as what we know as the real world - we can make the dream world a reality.

'Cassidy has a real commitment to making intelligent shows about fun ideas' Fringe Guru.

'A great comedian' ★★★★★ Broadway Baby

Nathan's last play 'The Cure for the common cold' won the Sir Michael Caine Award for new writing in theatre. As a stand-up he has won and been nominated for awards including a Malcolm Hardee Award nomination at the Edinburgh Fringe and best show win on the Buxton Fringe 2014 (and nominations for the last 2 years).
